

Issue Essay

The contention that [topic] is not picayune. There are several nuances which need consideration before deciding whether [topic]. Notwithstanding, it is imperative that [your stand]. Therefore, I [agree/disagree] with the claim for [two/three] reasons.

Firstly, [introduce the overall idea of the paragraph]. An apt exemplar to elucidate this would be [example]. Thus, [connect this idea to thesis and explain why it is important].

However, this issue is byzantine, and there are no easy answers. [One counterpoint]. [Shut counterpoint if you strongly agree with the thesis]. [Rephrase thesis].

Argumentative Essay

In the provided comment, [rephrase the main conclusion]. However, this conclusion is reached impetuously and makes numerous unwarranted assumptions that might undermine its cogency. Therefore, we must analyze [x] possibilities that might rival the proposed explanation. [rephrase according to the instructions]

Firstly, [question or argument]. [Example]. [Effect on author's conclusion if it proves to be correct].

Thus, the argument, as it stands now, is flawed. The given evidence is insufficient to reach a cohesive conclusion. Additional evidence needs to be collected, which would prove to be conducive in reaching a sturdy conclusion.